My dear Mr. Noe:

At the request of Miss Work, Head of the Classical Department at Wheaton College, I am writing to ask for a loan of the collection of "coins by centuries".

Thanking you for this favor, I am,

Very truly yours,

My dear Mr. Robertson,

Since I could not come back to New York at the end of the summer as I had planned, I should have written you before this about the scarab and the gem or two from the old leather purse. If you did buy them for me, as you so kindly offered to do if they were not too costly, I shall be glad to send a check at once.

The old watch proved to be a great source of amusement to my friends. I have never inquired closely enough about it though to discover its century for sure.

Sincerely yours,

Eunice Work

Dear Miss Work:

I had no luck in buying either the scarab or the seals. The man wanted too much for them so I let the matter drop. I am glad that you have lots of fun with the old watch.

Sincerely yours,

RR:JG

Assistant Curator

My dear Mr Wood

I got off after all without your parting admonition. But a pleasant Chinese party anyway and a pleasant evening with the little cathedral towers. Bringing them up was a good deed and whether I can find some of them or not they have done their bit.

Sincerely yours
